

Codice: VLLLRNZ Palaia

Imposing manor dating back to '700 situated on the Tuscan hills, within a large estate with beautiful woods, olive groves and vineyards producing excellent wine and olive. This property is surrounded by a nice park and provides a quiet and panoramic pool area located in a raised position with respect to the house and offering tranquility and privacy. The villa has been recently restored with its original architectural features preserved and turned into a welcoming country villa comprising 10 bedrooms set on 3 floors. The interiors are tastefully furnished in a rustic style. large park with a paved and furnished area ideal for al-fresco dining, nice pinewoods, beautiful outside area set on a natural terrace 50 meters from the villa and offering a large swimming-pool and a pool for children. Guests can also enjoy use of a large lawn with garden furniture.

