Scala - Itália - 2019

Amalfi Coast

The Amalfi Coast is a stretch of great natural beauty located in the Province of Salerno, Campania region, Italy. It has been one of the first natural site (1997) classified by the UNESCO as a World Heritage Site.

In this heavenly place, we find the picturesque town of Scala!

Ruins of the Basilic of Sant'Eustachio

Amalfi coast is famous for it's stunning views but also for the beauty of it's churches, mostly very intimate.

This venue is what remains of the richest church of Scala (first half of the 12th century). Imposing and interesting ruins mainly consisting of the apse wall, in which today you can admire traces of architectural decorative elements determined by stones of various colors, of cornices, rows of pointed arched arches intersecting each other. In the void of some arches, one can still see an ornate round of tufa stone. Set on a higher position compared to the city, it benefits of a magnificent view over the sea.
